Medical conditions which may be aggravated by contact:

Dust from the product may aggravate existing chronic lung conditions such as, but not limited to, bronchitis, emphysema, and asthma.

Target organs:

Lungs, Eyes, Skin.

Primary route(s) of entry:

Inhalation.

Acute effects:

Upper respiratory irritation, including irritation of throat. Irritation and inflammation to eyes on contact and to the skin on prolonged contact.

Chronic effects:

The international agency for research on Cancer (IARC) reviewed the carcinogenicity data on manmade vitreous fibers (including RCF) in 1987. IARC classified RCF as "possibly carcinogenic to humans" Group 2B. IARC's classification of RCF was based on sufficient evidence of carcinogenicity in experimental animals in the absence of data on the carcinogenicity of RCF to humans. Additionally, IARC classified cristobalite, which may be found in after-service RCF, and quartz, which may be found at low levels in some of the raw materials as "Known Human Carcinogens – Group 1. NTP lists the respirable polymorphs of crystalline silica (cristobalite and quartz) amongst substances which may "reasonably be anticipated to be carcinogens". The long-term, excessive inhalation of respirable RCF and/or dust particulate containing crystalline silica in the respirable size range, may contribute to the development of industrial bronchitis reduced breathing capacity, and lead to increased susceptibility to other lung disease.

Signs & symptoms of overexposure:

Eye contact:

Fiber and/or particulate may contribute to the development of moderate eye irritation.

Skin Contact:

Abrasiveness of fiber may contribute to the development of skin irritation.

Inhalation:

Inhalation of airborne particulate can irritate upper respiratory system as well as the throat.

Ingestion:

An unlikely route of exposure. If ingested in sufficient quantity, may cause gastrointestinal disturbances. Symptoms will include irritation and may include nausea, vomiting and abdominal pain.

IV FIRST AID MEASURES

Eye contact:

Flush eyes, including under the eyelids, with large amounts of water. If irritation persists, seek medical attention.

Skin contact:

Wash affected areas with mild soap and water.

Inhalation:

Remove victims from adverse environment to fresh air.

Ingestion:

Ingestion is an unlikely route of exposure. If ingested in sufficient quantity and victim is conscious, give 1-2 glasses of water or milk. Never give anything by mouth to an unconscious person. Leave decision to induce vomiting to qualified medical personnel, since particles may be aspired into the lungs. Seek immediate medical attention.

V FIRE FIGHTING MEASURES

NFPA Code: Flammability: 0 Health: 0 Reactivity : 0 Special : 0

Flash point:

Product is not combustible.

Extinguishing Media:

Use extinguishing media appropriate to combustibles in area of fire.

Fire fighting instructions:

Firefighters should wear NIOSH-approved, positive pressure, self-contained breathing apparatus and full protective clothing when appropriate.

VI ACCIDENTAL RELEASE MEASURES

Spill procedures:

Carefully, cleanup and place material into a suitable covered container, being careful to avoid creating any airborne dust; Use EPA filtered vacuum equipment if available, if not, use a dust suppressant with sweeping; do not use compressed air. Clean-up personnel should wear approved respiratory protection, gloves, and goggles to prevent irritation from contact and/or inhalation.

VII HANDLING AND STORAGE

These products are stable under all conditions of storage. Store in original container in a dry area. Keep container closed when not in use. Avoid creating dust.

VIII EXPOSURE CONTROLS AND PERSONAL PROTECTION

Engineering controls:

Pending results of long-term health effects studies, engineering controls (i.e. ventilation) and work practices to control levels of airborne fibers to the lowest level attainable. Provide sufficient ventilation, in both volume and airflow patterns, to control the fiber/dust concentrations below allowable exposure limits.

Personal protective equipment:

Goggles, gloves, respirators, long sleeve clothing and head covering.

Respiration protection:

Calortec currently recommends an exposure limit of 0.5 fibers per cubic centimeter (0.5 f/cc) for respirable airborne ceramic fiber as an 8-hour time weighted average exposure. Provide workers with NIOSH/MSHA-approved respirators in accordance with requirements of 29 CFR 1910.134 when airborne concentrations of respirable fiber and/or cristobalite exceed the recommended limits.

The following are recommended respirator types for varying respirable airborne concentrations of ceramic fiber and/or cristobalite.

Fiber	Cristobalite	Respirator Type
< 1 f/cc	$< 0.05 \text{ mg/m}^3$	Optional disposable respirator (example: 3M 9900)
1 – 5 f/cc	$0.05 - 0.5 \text{ mg/m}^3$	Half-mask air-purifying respirator equipped with high-efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filtered cartridges (example: 3M 6340)
5 – 25 f/cc	$0.5 - 2.5 \text{ mg/m}^3$	Full-facepiece air-purifying respirator equipped with high-efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filtered cartridges (example: 3M 7800 with 7255 filters) or powered air-purifying respirator (PAPR) with HEPA filtered cartridge.

> 25 f/cc  $> 2.5 \text{ mg/m}^3$

Any supplied-air respirator operated in positive pressure mode (example: 3M 7800 with W9435 hose and W3196 regulator connected to clean air supply).

Airborne fiber and cristobalite concentrations are determined by time-weighted air samples collected and analyzed using NIOSH method 7400 ("B" counting rules) and 7500, respectively. Exposures are expressed as 8-hour time weighted averages.

XI TOXICOLOGICAL INFORMATION

Epidemiology:

Industry epidemiologic investigations of RCF production workers and surveillance of customer's employees using RCF is ongoing. Preliminary interim results<sup>1</sup>, obtained from employees in RCF manufacturing facilities, is as follows:

- 1. There is no evidence of any fibrotic lung disease (interstitial fibrosis) on x-ray.
- 2. There is no evidence of any lung disease among those employees exposed to RCF that have never smoked.
- 3. A statistical trend was observed in exposed population between the duration of exposure to RCF and a decrease in some measures of pulmonary function. These observations are clinically insignificant. In other words, if these observations were made on an individual employee, the results would be interrupted as being with in the normal range.
- 4. Pleural plaques (thickening along the chest wall) have been observed in a small number of employees who had a long duration of employment. There are several occupational and non-occupational causes for pleural plaque. It should be noted that plaques are not pre-cancer nor are they associated with any measurable effects on lung function.

Toxicology:

The International Agency for Research on Cancer (IARC) reviewed the carcinogenicity data on man-made vitreous fibers (including ceramic fiber, glasswool, rockwool, and slagwool) and classified MMVF as a possible human carcinogen (Group 2B). IARC's 2B classification was based on sufficient evidence of carcinogenicity in the experimental animals and inadequate evidence (no data) of the carcinogenicity in the experimental of ceramic fiber to the humans.

A number of studies on the health effects of inhalation exposure of rats and hamster have recently been completed. In a lifetime nose-only inhalation study<sup>2,3</sup>, rats exposed the Maximum Tolerated Dose of 30 mg/m³ (approximately 200 fibers /cc) developed progressive lung damage and cancers of the lung and of the pleura (lining of the chest wall and lung). In contrast, hamsters similarly exposed developed interstitial fibrosis and pleural cancer, but no lung cancer. Cancer of the pleura is called mesothelioma.

In another lifetime nose-only inhalation study <sup>4,5</sup>, rats were exposed to three different concentrations of RCF (3,9, and 16 mg/m³, approximately 25, 75 and 115 fibers per cc respectively). The data from this study demonstrated a dose-response relationship in the biological affects of RCF in rats. There is no RCF related increase in lung tumors at 3, 9, or 16 mg/m³. A pleural fibrosis and mesothelioma were seen in single rat in the mid-dose (9 mg/m³) group. In addition, no consistently diagnosed fibrosis was seen below 9 mg/m³. Pulmonary fibrosis was observed at 9 and 16 mg/m³.

CHRONIC EFFECTS

Dust which may be generated from sawing, or crushing product during installation and from after service tear-out may contain free/crystalline silica. The prolonged inhalation (usually years) of mineral dusts containing free/crystalline silica may result in the development of a disabling pulmonary fibrosis known as silicosis; a progressive, incapacitating and sometimes fatal lung disease. IARC has classified crystalline silica as a "Known Human Carcinogen - Group 1". NTP lists respirable crystalline silica amongst substances which may "reasonably be anticipated to be carcinogens". See Section 16 for safe "Removal After Service Precautions".

SECTION 4. FIRST AID MEASURES

Flush eyes, including under the eyelids, with large amounts of Eve contact:

water. If irritation persists, seek medical attention.

Skin contact: Wash affected areas with mild soap and water.

Remove victim to fresh air. If not breathing, give artificial Inhalation:

respiration. Get immediate medical attention.

Ingestion is an unlikely route of exposure. If ingested in Ingestion:

sufficient quantity and victim is conscious, give 1-2 glasses of water or milk. Never give anything by mouth to an unconscious person. Leave decision to induce vomiting to qualified medical personnel, since particles may be aspirated into the lungs. Seek immediate medical attention.

REMOVAL AFTER SERVICE/TEAR-OUT PRECAUTIONS:

Because of the possible presence of crystalline silica in used refractory debris, particular care should be exercised during tear-out to minimize the generation of dust. Adherence to proper methods of dust suppression and control is imperative. The following precautions should be taken during tear-out.

- 1. Employees should be apprised of the hazards and proper conditions and precautions for safe use or exposure.
- 2. Approved respirators, in accordance with requirements of 29 CFR 1910.134, should be used for dust levels above 0.05mg/m³ respirable crystalline silica.
- 3. Dust generation should be minimized by the use of dust control equipment or water
- Wear protective clothing and vacuum clean prior to removing clothing.
   Where there is a possibility of exposure to dust containing respirable crystalline silica, the following warning should be posted.

Subject: Specialty Heat Treat - Eval #1207-22

A sample from Specialty Heat Treat, Houston, evaluation #1207-22, has been evaluated to help us determine how we can process this material. This sample is a two phased sample of oil and water, with about 90% by volume of water. It is stated as being diesel/water from tank containment and oil from equipment fluid changes. The water phase contains a few solids which are not a problem. The analytical test results are:

pH(water phase) = 6 TOC = 1393 mg/L Flash point > 150F Chlor-d-tect 300 mg/L

The water treats easily and has a low TOC. A charge of $0.12/gallon will cover our processing costs and insure that we are profitable in this transaction.

RE: Cleaning of caustic tank

Dear Mr. Taylor,

CES Environmental Services, Inc. appreciates the opportunity to present to you our proposal for the cleaning of a tank last containing caustic liquid. Please find below our proposed scope of service and associated pricing for your consideration.

Scope of Service

- CES will provide a field crew consisting of a supervisor and two field technicians.
- The crew will utilize a pressure washer to remove residue of the caustic liquid from the interior of the tank. A confined space entry permit will be required.
- CES will remove the water and residue from the tank via poly diaphragm pump. If the residual material is too thick, and air mover may be utilized. This will incur additional costs.
- Any solids generated will need to be processed as hazardous waste. An approved profile will be required before disposal. The liquids generated will be pumped into poly totes and most likely will be recycled under the caustic profile.
- CES will provide the appropriate shipping documents with each shipment.

PRECAUTIONARY STATEMENTS: Avoid breathing vapors or mist. Avoid contact with skin, eyes and clothing. Keep container tightly closed. Wash thoroughly after handling. Use only with adequate ventilation.

POTENTIAL HEALTH EFFECTS:

Inhalation: May cause irritation (possibly severe), chemical burns, and pulmonary edema.

Skin contact: May cause irritation (possibly severe) and chemical burns.

Eye contact: May cause irritation (possibly severe), chemical burns, eye damage, and blindness.

Ingestion: May cause irritation (possibly severe), chemical burns, nausea, and vomiting.

Target Organs Effected: Respiratory System, Skin, Eye

Sodium hydroxide	5.5 - 61.5	1310-73-2
Sodium chloride (NaCl)	1 - 5	7647-14-5

4. FIRST AID MEASURES

Inhalation: If adverse effects occur, remove to uncontaminated area. Give artificial respiration if not breathing. If breathing is difficult, oxygen should be administered by qualified personnel. If respiration or pulse has stopped, have a trained person administer basic life support (Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation/Automatic External Defibrillator) and CALL FOR EMERGENCY SERVICES IMMEDIATELY.

Skin Contact: Immediately flush contaminated areas with water. Remove contaminated clothing, jewelry, and shoes immediately. Wash contaminated areas with soap and water. Thoroughly clean and dry contaminated clothing before reuse. Discard contaminated leather goods. GET MEDICAL ATTENTION IMMEDIATELY.

4. FIRST AID MEASURES

Eye Contact: Immediately flush eyes with a directed stream of water for at least 15 minutes, forcibly holding eyelids apart to ensure complete irrigation of all eye and lid tissues. Washing eyes within several seconds is essential to achieve maximum effectiveness, GET MEDICAL ATTENTION IMMEDIATELY.

Ingestion: Never give anything by mouth to an unconscious or convulsive person. If swallowed, do not induce vomiting. Give large amounts of water. If vomiting occurs spontaneously, keep airway clear. Give more water when vomiting stops. GET MEDICAL ATTENTION IMMEDIATELY.

Notes to Physician: The absence of visible signs or symptoms of burns does NOT reliably exclude the presence of actual tissue damage. Probable mucosal damage may contraindicate the use of gastric lavage.

5. FIRE-FIGHTING MEASURES

Fire Hazard: Negligible fire hazard.

Extinguishing Media: Use media appropriate for surrounding fire

Fire Fighting: Move container from fire area if it can be done without risk. Cool containers with water. Avoid contact with skin.

Sensitivity to Mechanical Impact: Not sensitive.

Sensitivity to Static Discharge: Not sensitive.

Flash point: Not flammable

6. ACCIDENTAL RELEASE MEASURES

Occupational Release:

Wear appropriate personal protective equipment recommended in Section 8 of the MSDS. Completely contain spilled material with dikes, sandbags, etc. Shovel dry material into suitable container. Liquid material may be removed with a vacuum truck. Remaining material may be diluted with water and neutralized with dilute acid, then absorbed and collected. Flush spill area with water, if appropriate. Keep product and flush water out of water supplies and sewers. This material is alkaline and may raise the pH of surface waters with low buffering capacity. Releases should be reported, if required, to appropriate agencies.

7. HANDLING AND STORAGE

Storage Conditions: Store and handle in accordance with all current regulations and standards. Keep container tightly closed and properly labeled. Do not store in aluminum container or use aluminum fittings or transfer lines, as flammable hydrogen gas may be generated. Keep separated from incompatible substances.

ENGINEERING CONTROLS: Provide local exhaust ventilation where dust or mist may be generated. Ensure compliance with applicable exposure limits.

PERSONAL PROTECTIVE EQUIPMENT:

Eye Protection: Wear chemical safety goggles with a faceshield to protect against eye and skin contact when appropriate. Provide an emergency eye wash fountain and quick drench shower in the immediate work area.

Skin and Body Protection: Wear chemical resistant clothing and rubber boots when potential for contact with the material exists. Contaminated clothing should be removed, then discarded or laundered.

Hand Protection: Wear appropriate chemical resistant gloves

Sodium hydroxide	5.5 - 51.5	1310-73-2
Sodium chloride (NaCl)	1 - 5	7647-14-5

4. FIRST AID MEASURES

Inhalation: If adverse effects occur, remove to uncontaminated area. Give artificial respiration if not breathing. If breathing is difficult, oxygen should be administered by qualified personnel. If respiration or pulse has stopped, have a trained person administer basic life support (Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation/Automatic External Defibrillator) and CALL FOR EMERGENCY SERVICES IMMEDIATELY.

4. FIRST AID MEASURES

Eye Contact: Immediately flush eyes with a directed stream of water for at least 15 minutes, forcibly holding eyelids apart to ensure complete irrigation of all eye and lid tissues. Washing eyes within several seconds is essential to achieve maximum effectiveness. GET MEDICAL ATTENTION IMMEDIATELY.

Ingestion: Never give anything by mouth to an unconscious or convulsive person. If swallowed, do not induce vomiting. Give large amounts of water. If vomiting occurs spontaneously, keep airway clear. Give more water when vomiting stops. GET MEDICAL ATTENTION IMMEDIATELY.

Notes to Physician: The absence of visible signs or symptoms of burns does NOT reliably exclude the presence of actual tissue damage. Probable mucosal damage may contraindicate the use of gastric lavage.

5. FIRE-FIGHTING MEASURES

Fire Hazard: Negligible fire hazard.

Extinguishing Media: Use media appropriate for surrounding fire

Fire Fighting: Move container from fire area if it can be done without risk. Cool containers with water. Avoid contact with skin.

Sensitivity to Mechanical Impact: Not sensitive.

Sensitivity to Static Discharge: Not sensitive.

6. ACCIDENTAL RELEASE MEASURES

Occupational Release:

Wear appropriate personal protective equipment recommended in Section 8 of the MSDS. Completely contain spilled material with dikes, sandbags, etc. Shovel dry material into suitable container. Liquid material may be removed with a vacuum truck. Remaining material may be diluted with water and neutralized with dilute acid, then absorbed and collected. Flush spill area with water, if appropriate. Keep product and flush water out of water supplies and sewers. This material is alkaline and may raise the pH of surface waters with low buffering capacity. Releases should be reported, if required, to appropriate agencies.

7. HANDLING AND STORAGE

Storage Conditions: Store and handle in accordance with all current regulations and standards. Keep container tightly closed and properly labeled. Do not store in aluminum container or use aluminum fittings or transfer lines, as flammable hydrogen gas may be generated. Keep separated from incompatible substances.

Re: Company Name Change and New Certificate of Insurance Requirement

Dear Valued Supplier:

Stewart & Stevenson Services, Inc., a Texas corporation (the "Company"), has entered into an agreement to sell (the "Sale") substantially all of its Power Products Division and Engineered Products Division to Stewart & Stevenson LLC and its wholly owned subsidiary, Stewart & Stevenson Power Products, LLC (the "Buyer"). The Buyer is a Delaware limited liability company controlled by Hushang Ansary and not affiliated with the Company. At the Sale closing, the Buyer will assume all of the rights and obligations of the Company under any open purchase orders or pending work or pending transportation services associated with the above mentioned divisions. The Company and the Buyer provide this written notice of the Sale.

The Buyer will have its administrative offices located at 611 West 38th Street, Houston, Texas 77018. Under the ownership of Mr. Ansary, Power Products Division and Engineered Products Division operations will run under the existing management at all existing locations with the same basic principles and goals. The intent is to create a seamless transition for both the Buyer and its valued suppliers. The current Supply Chain/Purchasing Team will be going with the new company and will continue to be your main contacts.

As a result of the Sale, the Buyer respectfully requires your company to provide a new certificate of insurance to include the following minimum insurance:

- A) Worker's Compensation with statutory limits and Employer's Liability Insurance with limits of $1,000,000 per occurrence.
- B) Commercial General Liability Insurance, including Contractual Liability to cover liability assumed under any agreement or purchase order for bodily injury and property damage in the amount of $1,000,000 for each occurrence and $2,000,000 general aggregate.
- C) Automobile Liability Insurance, covering owned, hired and non-owned vehicles in the amount of $1,000,000 per occurrence.

The Buyer is to be named as additional insured with respect to the coverages described in sections B & C above and include a Waiver of Subrogation Endorsement and 30 day notice of cancellation on all policies.

The certificate holder and additional insured are to show as follows:

Stewart & Stevenson Power Products, LLC Stewart & Stevenson LLC 611 West 38th Street Houston, TX 77018

The Buyer looks forward to continuing a mutually beneficial business relationship with your company.

The Company and the Buyer intend to consummate the Sale as early as January 13, 2006 and very much appreciate your support. In the event you have any questions regarding this notice, please let us know. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Sincerely,

Lori Corona Supply Chain Buyer Toug Chaning

Subject: Stewart & Stevenson Oil Evaluation 0308-107

A sample of oily water from Stewart & Stevenson on I-10 has been evaluated for potential processing at CES. This oil comes from an oil water separator used to process oily water from a wash bay. The oil has a chlor-d-tect of 500 ppm and a flash point greater than 140 deg F. The water has a pH of 8, a TOC of 1070 mg/L and phenols of only 1 ppm. The oil phases out fairly well from the water upon standing but obviously phases out much quicker when centrifuged. This oil source looks good for recycle at CES and its acquisition should be pursued.
